

2011-2012 Employer Appreciation Awards

As part of the 2011-2012 Employer Appreciation Night to be held on February 23rd, 2012 the Multicultural Association of Fredericton Employment Team is looking to present three awards. These awards are in recognition of significant contribution towards newcomer employment in the Fredericton area.

The awards are as follows:

Large Business Appreciation Award

Presented to an employer who has championed diversity throughout their organization. The criteria would be as follows: the perceived commitment to diversity in the hiring process, the availability of equal opportunities for immigrants as compared to Canadians, and the ability of immigrants to access promotional opportunities throughout the organization. This award will be presented to a business with more than 50 employees.

Small/Medium Business Appreciation Award

Presented to an employer who has championed diversity throughout their organization. Employers will be evaluated based on their commitment to diversity in the hiring process, the amount of equal opportunities given to immigrants as compared to Canadians, and the ability of immigrants to access promotional opportunities throughout the organization. This award will be presented to a business with less than 50 employees.

Community Support Award

Presented to an employer/individual who has not only given newcomers the opportunity to work but also helped them in their settlement into the community. This employer/individual has been committed to community projects that have helped immigrants settle in Fredericton. Also, this employer/individual has embraced the mandate of the Multicultural Association of Fredericton.
