

Anti-racism school art challenge winner June 23

SUBMITTED PHOTO

YOUTH SPEAK II: The Multicultural Association of Fredericton Inc. recently awarded the 1st prize award for the Anti-racism School Art Challenge, Grade 8 category, to Seanne Stander at Gagetown Middle School. From left are Dexter Noel, president of the MCAF; Seanne Stander, award recipient; Kevin Breen, teacher. The MCAF published the Youth Speak II, a collection of anti-racism art and written work from middle and high school students to mark the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination.