WINNERS: In commemoration of the March 21 International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination, the The Multicultural Association of Fredericton Inc. (MCAF) organized the anti-racism school art challenge for middle and high school students. They were invited to express their opinions and objections to racism through artwork in the form of drawings, poems or short stories. Above, MCAF recognizes Anti-racism School Art Challenge winners from Harvey High School, from left, Hideki Koshizuka, Kana Takahashi, Rie Hayashi, Japanese dance performers; Haruka Kudo of the MCAF; Jenna Chase, 3rd place; Wesley Brown, 2nd place; Morgan Holland, 1st place; and Gerard Nkurunziza, Andrew Gbongbor, and Jeremias Tecu, MCAF representatives. The day included an exhibit of the anti-racism artwork, cultural performances, an anti-racism presentation and this year's award-winning films of Canadian heritage national youth video competition, Racism. Stop It.
